

Character Creation Walkthrough

Summary. To get started, give a very brief summary of your character, just a bullet description. Something like "Ex-cop with an attitude," "Timid librarian who likes to daydream," "Race car driver who survived a horrible crash," "Petty thief who wants to go straight," etc.

Description. Now expand on that with a few more lines. Example: "John Foo was a cop for 8 years before finally being drummed off the force for insubordination. His belligerent attitude and short temper ultimately overshadowed his good qualities of being courageous and calm under pressure. Etc."

Role. How do you see your role in the group? What do you bring to the group better than other characters? Choose one of the options below, or write in your own.

Attributes. Which of the following best describes your character (choose one)?

Traits. What are some things that distinguish your character from everyone else? Please list at least three, more if you can. For example, are you lucky or unlucky? Rich or poor? Unflinching in the face of danger, afraid of cats, father of two young daughters, prone to fits of rage, suffer a bad back, have exceptional vision, etc.?

Skills. What are some skills that your character has? List anything here you're good at: computer hacking, karate, fast-talk, skiing, auto repair, shooting, first aid, whatever. Be specific (what kind of gun?).

Details. Finally, fill in some details.

Height: Weight: Eyes: Hair: Age:

Appearance:

Languages Spoken:

Family:

History:

Notes (anything important that didn't fit elsewhere):